WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Bruce,

You are mischaracterising my response to your email of the other day.

You are deliberately trying to create a situation that does not exist and you are playing on words.

All your suggestions in your email are rejected and without basis.

You are requested to refrain from direct communication with me or any of the LP team.

Any future communication will not be replied to and the lack of reply to any future communication does not constitute any agreement with your statements, now or in the future.

Any communication from you should be directed to our counsel and to be formal in nature.

Please try to conduct yourself in a professional manner and according to the request herein.

With thanks,

Farzad

> Hello again Farzad.

> The valid notice of Kirby "buying back" the Kirby Sailboat (Laser) design > rights from Global was sent to you on September 26th. The short note last > week was intended to be informal and to put us back on a responsive and > co-operative basis.

> In short I have stated that my intellectual property rights were NOT > sold to Global and I expect my contracts with PSE and Laser Performance > U.S.A to be recognized and acted upon.

> In your response to me dated Sept. 29th you twice said the arrangements > between us "are what they are." I'm glad you agree with me and my counsel > on this point. As the purchase by Global was never completed the situation > between us is as it was in 2008. Please instruct your people on this point > and have them resume the royalty arrangements as in our contracts, and also > catch up on unpaid royalties back to 2008.

> Sincerely - Bruce Kirby
